

Arthur Manwaring To Final Rest

Funeral services for Arthur Manwaring, who died at his home on South Meridian Street following a stroke suffered a year and eight months ago, were held in the First Ward L. D. S. chapel with Allen Cannon of the bishopric officiating.

"Though Deep'ning Trials" was sung by the choir under the direction of Dexter Gardner and accompanied by Leone Elison and Mary Cannon. The invocation was offered by Harvey Allen, followed by a vocal solo, "Star Divine" by Alice Hebdon. An obituary and words of tribute were given by Howard Anderson who spoke of the many years he and Mr. Manwaring had worked together in the bishopric of the First Ward. Verda Ball sang, "Sun Down". Marvin Elison paid tribute to the many years of service the deceased had given to the church and community. Howard Packham sang a vocal solo, "The Link Divine". President J. Elmer Williams was the concluding speaker. "I Need Thee Every Hour" was sung by the choir. George Clark pronounced the benediction.

The many beautiful floral offerings were a silent reminder of the esteem felt for the deceased and his family, were cared for by Lila Arave and Monta Gardner of the First Ward Relief Society assisted by the following members and friends: Carrie Tanner, Zila Clegg, Effie Yancey, Jessie Hawes, Lois Madsen, Gladys Noack, Elva Pendlebury, Elva Christensen, Anna Wright, Lena Brown, Estella Jones, Goldie Woodland, Edith Belnap, Mary Swenson, Ruth Park, Grace Anderson, and Maude Elison.

Following services the body was taken to the Fielding Memorial Park for interment. The dedicatory prayer at the grave side was offered by Royal M. Jeppson.

Pall bearers were: Stanley Elison, George Belnap, Ross Higgins, Alvin Bergeson, M. J. Johnson, and Chesley Woodland.

Funeral arrangements were under the direction of the Brown-Eldredge Mortuary.
