I was on a lovely morn in spring
 The sun was shining bright
 When Joseph sought the woodland shade
 And humbly kneeling there he prayed
 To know which sect was right

One lovely morn in early spring
 When all was bright and fair
 Young Joseph sought the woodland shade
 And humbly kneeling there he prayed
 To Him who answers prayer

He prayed to God to ~~it~~ in simple faith
 To know which sect to ~~was~~ ^{was} right

One lovely morn in early spring
 The sun was shining bright
 And bee & bird were on the wing
 And all was fair & bright
 When Joseph sought the woodland shade
 And humbly kneeling there he prayed
 To know which sect was right

One lovely morn in early spring
 When all was fair & bright
 And bee and bird were on the wing
 And earth was bathed in light
 When Joseph in the woodland shade
 Bow'd down and to the Father prayed
 To know which sect was right

But suddenly his tongue was stop'd
 By some most evil power

Closing Hymn.

Lord we ask thee 'ere we part
 Bless the teachings of this hour
 'Grave them deep on every heart
 That through life they may endure.

2

In the innocence of youth
 We would all thy laws fulfill
 May we in thy service find
 Lead us in the way of truth
 Give us strength to do thy will.

3

Father merciful and kind
 While we labor for the right
 May we in thy service find
 Sweetest pleasure - pure delight.

4

All our follies Lord forgive
 Keep us from temptation free
 Help us evermore to live
 Lives of holiness to thee.

Opening Hymn!

Hear us heavenly Father
While we humbly pray
Look with loving favor
On our school to day.

Bless our superintendant
And our teachers kind
That they may in wisdom
Lead the tender mind

Grant Eternal Father
We may learn thy ways
And unto thy honor
Spend our earthly days

When our lives are ended
When our course is run
May we be commended
By thy glad well-done.

Children come to Sunday school
On this blessed day
In the happy Sunday school
Learn to sing and pray.

Sweetly sing your Makers praise
Heart-felt offerings bring
Angels love the little lays
Which the children sing

All unite in humble prayer
Unto God above
Pray to Him who loves to hear
Thank Him for his love.

Joseph Smiths First Prayer.

1
Oh how lovely was the morning
Radiant beamed the sun above
Bees were humming, birds were singing
Music ringing through the grove
When within the shady woodland
Joseph sought the God above.

2
Humbly kneeling, sweet appealing
'Twas the boys first uttered prayer
When the powers of sin assailing
Filled his soul with deep despair
But undaunted still he trusted
In his heavenly Fathers care

3
Suddenly a light descended
Brighter far than noonday sun
And a shining glorious pillar
O'er him fell around him shone
While appeared two heavenly beings
God the Father and the Son. over 7

Concluded

4
Joseph this is my beloved
Hear Him! how sweet the word
Josephs humble prayer was answered
And He listened to the Lord
Oh what rapture filled his bosom
For he saw the Living God.

Our Saviours Promise

Concluded

And oh what comfort 'tis to know,
That He will bless His children now.
Who unto Him draw near.

3

If two or three His words may prove
And feel the Spirits power.
Should we not claim and share His love
This holy happy hour?
Yes, we will draw a blessing down,
Rejoice in this a Saviours boon.
And praise Him evermore.

How sweet the thoughts that ever spring
From loving hearts to those most dear
What kindly words doth friendship bring
These pages grace thy heart & cheer
But greater than all earthly love
Is that which cometh from above
A savours love can never end
He is our surest dearest friend.

Parting Hymn
