A visitor at Temple Square in Salt Lake City was caught in the throngs assembling for general conference. He said to a little news boy selling his papers on the corner, "Could you tell me what is going on here? Why are all these people here?" The little boy replied "Why, haven't you heard? It all started with one little prayer by one little boy!"

"GROUND BREAKING"

words by Marie M. Anderson
tune: "Our Mountain Home so Dear"

Father, we've met today to humbly sing and pray,
Thankful to Thee, thankful to Thee,
For this dear valley fair, for all we've prospered here,
For the gospel that we share, Lord bless us still.

Hallow and bless this ground, and all the people round.
Let love abide, let love abide.
Let all the past be done, help us to work as one
Now this chapel is begun, let love abide.

Bless all the builders too.
Help them build strong and true,
This church to Thee, this church to Thee.
Guide every heart and hand that we may wisely plan
For a chapel that will stand throughout the years.

Dear Lord, we humbly pray on this ground-breaking day
For guidance true, for guidance true.
May strength and unity bless our community
All to serve and follow Thee, serve and follow Thee.
